

MassGrown and Fresher News – Time for

Peaches, Tomatoes, Corn and More!

Although there are no legal holidays in August it is "National Peach Month" and that certainly is something to celebrate! Along with a plethora of farm fresh produce, you'll find our fuzzy little friends at your local farmers' markets, farmstand or at one of the farm vendors stationed at the new Boston Public Market. We are also pleased to proclaim that August 2 – 8 is "Massachusetts Farmers' Market Week."

Our recipe of the month, Grilled Corn, Peach & Basil Salsa, is August in one delicious, farm fresh bite!

Did you know that Massachusetts hosts approximately 25 Agricultural Fairs in August, and they offer more than just exciting entertainment, the mid-way and fried dough! You can also learn a great deal about Massachusetts agriculture through the educational agricultural exhibits, animal shows, & the locally made food.

Here's a glimpse of all that's left to do this summer. Get a complete listing on our Culinary & Agricultural Events Calendar; be sure to check with the organizer's website beforehand for any last minute changes.
